On 27 May 2021, AMOPA Irlande will host a special discovery talk with Ms Sandy Sinnott, resident in Ireland since 2005 and originally from Haute Savoie in France. Accredited Tour Guide and qualified Interpreter in France and in Ireland, Sandy is also a Professor of French at the Alliance Française of Waterford/Wexford. She offers virtual presentations of the cities of her native country.

For this first discovery talk, come and discover (or rediscover) the beautiful city of Amiens, its history and its culture....

Each participant will receive after the presentation an additional video with traditional recipes from the city of Amiens that you can cook at home!
